String Camp is a wonderful kick-off to the second semester, where spirit and leadership are renewed and friendships are strengthened. New Orchestra members learn skills, gain confidence, and become part of the Orchestra family. This will also be our primary rehearsal block for upcoming events such as String Fling, Spaghetti and Strings, and the Homestead Festival. On Sunday afternoon, we invite all families and friends to join us among the Redwoods at YMCA Camp Campbell for a concert showcasing our work before heading home! We encourage every Orchestra student to attend. There are scholarships available for students.

All interested students are welcome, regardless of their family's ability to contribute financially. However, without generous contributions from most of our families, we wouldn't be able to continue this program with the success we now enjoy. We've listed suggested contributions below. If you're able to contribute to the program in honor of your student, we hope you'll do so!
